

VERSE 1

Old things have passed away
Your love has stayed the same
Your constant grace remains the cornerstone

Things that we thought were dead
Are breathing in life again
You cause your Son to shine on darkest nights

Malachi 3:6

“For I, the LORD, do not change; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed”

John 11:43-44

“After Jesus had said this, he shouted as loudly as he could, “Lazarus, come out!”
The dead man came out. “

PRE CHORUS / CHORUS

For all that you've done, we will pour out our love
This will be our anthem song
Jesus we love you
Oh how we love you
You are the one our, our hearts adore

Philippians 4:19 ESV

“And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.”

1 John 4:7 ESV

“Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God.”

VERSE 2

The hopeless have found their hope
The orphans now have a home
All that was lost has found its place in you
You lift our weary head
You make us strong instead
You took these rags and made us beautiful
For all that you've done, we will pour out our love

James 1:27.

“Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.”

Psalms 40:2

“He brought me up out of the pit of destruction, out of the miry clay, And He set my feet upon a rock making my footsteps firm.”

Ephesians 2:10 NLT

“For we are God’s masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.”

Isaiah 40:29 NLT

“He gives power to the weak and strength to the powerless.”

BRIDGE

Our affection, our devotion
Poured out on the feet of Jesus
Our affection, our devotion

Deuteronomy 6:5

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.”

Luke 7:36-50

A sinful woman in the town learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house. So she brought an alabaster jar of perfume and stood behind Jesus at his feet, crying. She began to wash his feet with her tears, and she dried them with her hair, kissing them many times and rubbing them with the perfume. When the Pharisee who asked Jesus to come to his house saw this, he thought to himself, “If Jesus were a prophet, he would know that the woman touching him is a sinner!”

Then Jesus turned toward the woman and said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? When I came into your house, you gave me no water for my feet, but she washed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. You gave me no kiss of greeting, but she has been kissing my feet since I came in. You did not put oil on my head, but she poured perfume on my feet. I tell you that her many sins are forgiven, so she showed great love. But the person who is forgiven only a little will love only a little.” Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.” The people sitting at the table began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?” Jesus said to the woman, “Because you believed, you are saved from your sins. Go in peace.”
